

Dear Ocean

by Rabbi David Zaslow

Dear Ocean,
I miss you very much,
You and your waves
made out of music.
I love to listen
to the song
of your waves splashing
on the shore.
The next time we meet
can I be the roar
that lives inside of you?
Can I be the whales
that ride the seesaw
of your waters?
Thanks, David

