

I Get Up in the Face

by Rabbi David Zaslow

I get up in the face
and wash my morning.
I make my clothes
and put on my bed.
I say hello to my breakfast
and eat my parents.
I put on my dog
and take my coat for a walk.
I walk to book
while carrying my schools.
I say hello to my desk
and sit on my teacher.
I spell my math
and add my words.
I listen with my pencil
and write with my ears.
I play in the lunch
and eat my playground. gym
I play with my over
when school is friends.
I walk back supper
just in time for home.
I do my TV
and watch my homework.
I crawl into my light
and turn off the bed.
I say goodnight to my dreams
and have wonderful parents all night.
