

The Roller Coaster

by Rabbi David Zaslow

Has life ever felt like a roller coaster,
turning and falling its way
through the days?
Have you ever been up
and then gone down?
Have you ever gone left
and then gone right?
You get on the ride
and it takes you around,
on the roller coaster of life.
Does the moon sail through the sky
on a roller coaster, too?
Does the tree grow in the forest
on a roller coaster, too?
Do words zip around the book
on a roller coaster, too?
Have you ever felt this happen to you?
