

The Roller Coaster

by Rabbi David Zaslow

Has life ever felt like a roller coaster. turning and falling its way through the days? Have you ever been up and then gone down? Have you ever gone left and then gone right? You get on the ride and it takes you around, on the roller coaster of life. Does the moon sail through the sky on a roller coaster, too? Does the tree grow in the forest on a roller coaster, too? Do words zip around the book on a roller coaster, too? Have you ever felt this happen to you?
