

Well

by Rabbi David Zaslow

I just want to say, well, what I mean is, well.
It seems to me that, well, this is hard to say, but, well, I really think that, well, what I really mean is, well, I mean, in my opinion, well.
I sort of kind of hope that, well, that, well, I hope that, well, you see, everything is, well, at least I feel that, well I mean my parents told me, well, even my teacher says, well, I mean school is very, well, not what I, well,
you know, it's just, well, what more can I say?
